

Paul Gauguin Cruises Introduces 10-Night Tahiti Hotel & Cruise Package

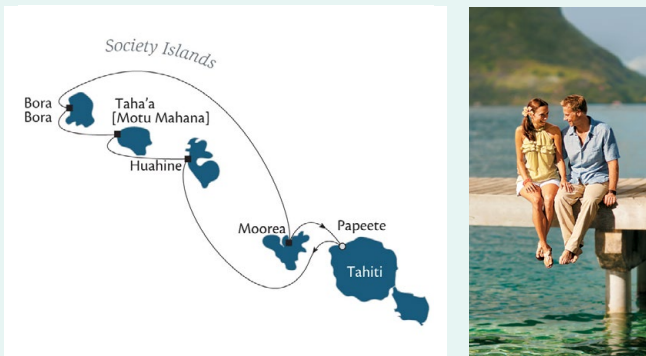

Paul Gauguin Cruises, operator of the highest-rated and longest continually sailing luxury cruise ship in the South Pacific, the m/s Paul Gauguin, introduces a 10-night hotel and cruise package that includes a 3-night pre-cruise stay at the InterContinental Tahiti Resort & Spa and a luxurious 7-night Tahiti & the Society Islands cruise on The Gauguin.

On this 10-night package, The Gauguin sails roundtrip from Papeete, visiting the scenic islands of Huahine and Taha'a with overnights in Bora Bora and Moorea. Itinerary highlights include a day on Motu Mahana, Paul Gauguin Cruises' private islet off the coast of Taha'a, featuring a delicious barbecue lunch and refreshments, and complimentary use of the cruise line's private white-sand beach in Bora Bora.

The InterContinental Tahiti Resort & Spa has long been rated the top hotel on the island of Tahiti, located alongside a lagoon with breathtaking views of the island of Moorea. The resort is situated on 30 acres of manicured gardens and features two infinity pools, a fitness centre, tennis courts, Deep Nature Spa by Algoterm, and a lagoonarium containing approximately 2,000 tropical fish. The resort is famous for its dinner shows at Le Tiare restaurant, which feature the internationally renowned Les Grands Ballets de Tahiti performance group, and its Le Lotus overwater gourmet restaurant offers one of the finest culinary experiences in Tahiti. As part of the package, guests receive 3-nights accommodation in a lagoon view room at the resort with daily breakfast and airport to hotel and hotel to pier transfers. For the ultimate Tahiti experience, an upgrade to an overwater lagoon bungalow is available from an additional US$960* per person.

TAHITI & SOCIETY ISLANDS | 7-NIGHT CRUISE

Papeete • Huahine • Taha'a • Bora Bora (overnight) • Moorea (overnight) • Papeete

The package is perfect for guests who want to enjoy a longer stay in Tahiti at a tremendous value and is available:
